Happy New Year to all,

It was a nice break during November and December, after a busy 2018.

I hope your holidays were wonderful.

Now it's time to get 2019 off to a running start.

We've got the familiar list in front of us – Scholarships, Camp Reach for the Stars, Pinedorado, White Cane Day, the Christmas Party, and the other things we do for the community – but, I'd like to concentrate this message on two extra pieces.

At probably too many points last year, I talked about the need to run at a deficit, to keep all the club's programs going. The board approved budget contains a "new income" line that would balance the budget. We need to put in place ways to raise fresh money.

I have some ideas. I'd like to hear yours.

Last year also saw a small group of lions came up with ideas for how the club might better handle our resources after the sale of the Palmer property. If we can find ways to make our money produce more income, this will tie nicely into the new income discussion above.

The club's board has discussed the group's proposals, put in place a process, and agreed to develop a recommendation at the March, 2019 meeting.

If any of you would like to learn more, you should speak with the investment group leader, Greg Aitkens. The recommendation will be taken to a general meeting for approval before implementation.

So, let's get going. See you at Jan. 8th's meeting.

Mike
