
Cambria Lions

Greeting Fellow Lions:

First off we must congratulate, once again, everyone for a very successful Pinedorado Days. Whether a Lion Member or Volunteer, you made it happen!

At our September 22nd Meeting, we had the pleasure of inducting and welcoming our newest member, Jeff Nielson. We were, also, delighted to have 6 sponsored guests, five of whom were women. The meeting was held at the Fog's End Barn for which a big thank you goes to Jim Bahringer. Everyone seemed to enjoy having an "outing" that even included a live auction...for wine, of course! Adding to the festivities was Linda Tokinston. Whenever she visits, she never misses a Lions Meeting.

In case you were not aware, Linda was the first woman inducted into the Cambria Lions.

Dawn Dunlap was our speaker for the evening and she gave a most interesting and informative talk about the history of the Cambria Lions Club.

As was announced at the last meeting, we are sponsoring one of the Beautify Cambria trash receptacles. Ellie Brown, backed up by Jim Bahringer, will keep the flowers watered, fed and beautiful. The Lions' sponsored one will be set in place, in front of the Medusa Restaurant, on Wednesday, October 7 at 8am.

The Arthritis Classic Bike Ride stayed the night Sept. 29 to Sept 30 and could not say enough good things about the privilege of using the Pinedorado Grounds. They left everything clean and neat and we look forward to next year. As one of the riders said to me "it is our favorite stop". They were completely charmed by all the scarecrows.

Don't forget White Cane Day is October 23rd. There will be sign up sheets at our October 13th Meeting. We serve.

Oh, yah, hey Nate, congratulations on your well deserved Community Award!
Thank you,

Dixie Walker
President 2015-2016
